

Current News

30 September 2016 Support for Google/Facebook Authentication

We are happy to announce that our MS-Access for Web framework now supports user Authentication with Facebook and Google. The framework can now also access online cloud services such as dropbox, Google drive etc. please visit our demosite for more information.